

Oktoberfest Flushing Style: Sauerkraut and Kimchi

Saturday, September 23rd, 5:30—8:30pm
 In the Garden at the Voelker Orth Museum
Welcome! Willkommen! Anyoung Hasao!

Join us for Oktoberfest Flushing Style at the Voelker Orth Museum, Bird Sanctuary and Victorian Garden. Oktoberfest is an old tradition, of welcoming guests and sharing in the season's bounty. Today it is enjoyed around the world. At the Voelker Orth we've brought together some of old Flushing and new for a cultural and culinary treat.

Oktoberfest Flushing Style is a fun and affordable fundraiser for the Museum. It is an evening of warm hospitality and lively entertainment, served up with home-cooked fare and tasty brew. Come linger in the twilight in a bountiful garden and help support the Voelker Orth Museum. Bring friends or come on your own.

The evening offers an outdoor grill, serving up German-American cuisine alongside a sampling of Korean-American dishes - uniting two culinary traditions that feature humble pickled cabbage. Norman Curtis will be performing at the keyboard, with appearances by other artists.

There's a raffle available to try your luck, too.

If it rains we move indoors.

Early Bird Tickets $30 until September 20. Regular Admission $35/$30 for Museum Members. You can buy tickets online at www.vomuseum.org. Please reserve in advance.
